let me glow, let me flow let me grow in you heart in your mind
in your soul
anywhere, anytime, anyhow when you want, when you need, when you know I will be there for you I will be there with you

the sea navigable
the sky has no limits
for those who are able
for understanding what does fit to the world they're heading for
to the life they're looking for let me take you on board let me sail you to the shore to choose is sometime to lose they say to lose what you haven't chosen but yes I confess I want you all welcome on board guide you on both sides lighthouse in the fog I show you where you stand now catch my aim from below control let you drown

lose control let you drown... wanna have sun in the winter wanna have snow in the summer wanna feel always better wanna come a bit closer we got on the top and we keep being more than we ever expected to be yes that's exactly what I meant yes that's exactly how I went Aproche...
