"The Ones Who Came Before"

Visit "The Ones Who Came Before" on MotoLyrics.com

Through ages, through history through civilizations, through societies taking man as a house We've traveled a long long way to be here now Back then, we left our virtual land to come down on the electric field of chosen human minds
where we unite for the best or the worst We're the ones who came before and the One you kneel before for we're those who are no more We cannot be understood as we are understanding Guided by the wind, we come to your place reading your wishes and hidden desires dressing your dreams of colors and sounds beware of yourself, 'cause you'll get what you want We're the ones who came before
for we're those who are no more Liquid Soul Dimension Far from my kingdom golden dreams, tranquil peace Far from me, pornographic smiles Far is your world lost in a sea of nothingness a passed Utopia, a banished lie Land, of infinite spaces Suns, of interior lights Dances of the absurd and the real
