You see me in sneak preview
Non-fiction, no dreams of you
If you deceive me I will mute the sound of love
If you refuse me I will show your downfall
Don't love me, you'll hurt me more and more

No one is save for a love devotion
Violently sweet, relentless and mean
Never believe in a mute emotion
'Cause no one can hear what I really need

I see you without a light
I hear you when you are quiet
Do you believe you can win every silent war?
How does it feel when you loose your own fight?
Your mission to hurt me more and more

No one is save for a love devotion
Violently sweet, relentless and mean
Never believe in a mute emotion
'Cause no one can hear what I really need

(Did you hear me say I love you?)
(Do I have to say I love you?)
(This time I will not say anything... silence)

No one is save for a love devotion (do I have to say I Love you)
Violently sweet, relentless and mean
(Silence)
Never believe in a mute emotion
'Cause no one can hear what I really need

(Did you hear me say I love you?)
(Do I have to say I love you?)

Kyoko: Can you be quiet please?
