I've fallen, fallen for you,
I'm drowning everyday I'm without you.
So catch me if you want to try,
A new beginning, a new life.

I'm seeing things in a different way, unsure of what I'll find.
So grab my hand lets fly away, to the endless night.
I've fallen, fallen for you.

Now everytime, everytime I see your face,
It takes me away, to a very very special place.
And the light, that's all around you I feel,
Puts a smile to my eyes, and lets me know this is real.

I'm seeing things in a different way, unsure of what I'll find.
So grab my hand lets fly away, to the endless night.
I've fallen, fallen for you.
