In the beginning, I wasn't certain
We said, "We'd take it day by day"
I thought that you were like all the others
Then you stole my heart away

I thought, we'd come to some kind of understanding
I thought that our love was more than a miss

You started something, I'm begging you to stay
You started something, you know, you'll turn away
I tell you one thing, no matter what you say
You started something, you just can't walk away
You just can't turn away, you just can't turn away

I never said, "I had all the answers"
To the questions in your heart
You shouldn't start things that you can't finish
Now you're breaking us apart

Do you believe that our love was so demanding?
I wanna hold on to what we have got

You started something, I'm begging you to stay
You started something, you know, you'll turn away
I tell you one thing, no matter what you say
You started something, you just can't walk away
You just can't turn away, you just can't turn away

I tell you one thing
You started something
You just can't turn away

I thought, we'd come to some kind of understanding
I thought that our love was more than a miss

You started something, I'm begging you to stay
You started something, you know, you'll turn away
I tell you one thing, no matter what you say
You started something, you just can't walk away
You just can't turn away, you just can't turn away

You started something, I'm begging you to stay

You started something, you know, you?ll turn away
I tell you one thing, no matter what you say
You started something, you just can?t walk away

You started something, I?m begging you to stay
You started something, you know, you?ll turn away
I tell you one thing, no matter what you say
