Horace Andy

It's you I love and not another

And I know our love will last forever

You I love and not another

And I know we'll always be together

Some have one love, two and three love

Four and five and six love

But I believe in one love

I believe in one love

Some don't feel secure unless they have a woman on each arm

They have to play the field, prove they have charm

They say don't lay your eggs in 1 basket

If the basket should fall all the eggs'll be broken

But I believe in one love

I believe in one love

Oh girl I believe in one love

I believe in one love

Oh girl it's not the everyday you find the woman of your dreams

Who will always be there no matter how bad things seem

Ever so faithful ever so sure
No man could ever ask for more
I believe in 1 love
I believe in one love, oh girl
I believe in one love
I believe, girl, oh yeah
In one love, in one love
In one love, in one love
I do, I do, I do
In one love
I do
In one love
I believe in one love, in one love.
