Horace Andy

You live in the city

You stay by yourself

You are invite all weakness

Still some people they brand you ya

Just because you are rasta

You move to the country

You live in the hills

You invite all company

When you check it in the new spying glass

They want to know all your business

You live in the city

You mind your own business

What you see you don't see

But some people they always see

They never mind their own business

You move to the country

You live in the hills

You think you're far from the weak

When you check it in your spying glass

They want to know rasta business

Spying Glass!

Spying Glass!

Yeah
