Here's to love:

are we naive to think there will ever be enough easy to give and yet so hard to be deprived of can we have a little more love?

And here's to peace:

will we ever see a day when war will cease or is it who we are the nature of the least will there ever be peace?

oh la la la la la la na na na na la no-oh la la la la lalalala la la la la la whoa

And here's to hope:

even if you're barely hanging on this much i know you are never truly lost til you let go so don't lose hope

And here's to you:

for believing in yourself and what you do and taking time to hear a different part of you oh whoa
i have faith in you, oh i have faith in you so here's to you
