Here I am
There he is
I'm oh so sad
Feels like I've got no blood in my veins
You're so far away
Like Venus and Mars
The girls with the injured smile is down for you
(don't think about it, don't think about it)

What a weird old thought
I laugh to myself
Drunken and tearful I cry for you
Are you having fun?
Do you think about me?
Drunken and tearful again

I tell myself
Don't think of him
I try and try
But the bandage shrinks to my headsize again
Insane you say
In love I reply
The girl with the violent smile is undressing for you
(don't think about it, don't think about it)

What a weird old thought
I confess to myself
Drunken and tearful I pine for you
Are you having fun?
Do you think about me?
Drunken and tearful again
