THE GOLDEN RULE

Well someone told me if you live in a glass house
You might die in a big earthquake and end up with a stone in your mouth.
I felt like kicking out when my boyfriend made me cry,
But the loveliest fairy in the world and her name is do
as you would be done byâ€¦
It's the golden rule!
Kittenish behavior or is it she doesn't care at all?
Hit 'em like a tank girl its their attitude against the wallâ€¦ Crush 'em with a crack sound and then hang 'em out to dry
And sprinkle a little good strong fairy dust right into their eyesâ€¦
It's the golden rule or so I read in some poem somewhere
