The crowd, the crowd
Hush now, quiet down
I've got a mystery to solve
(You got it, you got it)

Of a case of a heartbreak
So here's some support
From me to you
(You got it, you got it)

The details are
She's a runner
A wannabe lover
Well what a bummer
We've checked around
Through lost and found
And U.S. Customs

We've got a runner (We've got a runner)
We're chasing her down
Chasing her down
Chasing our target (Chasing a high risk target) Oh, don't even try to run (I tried, tried, tried my hardest)
Don't, don't, baby
You're gonna leave me alone (Sleepless nights I am honest)
Don't even say goodbye

You have your rights
Don't say a word
Don't say a word

Hey you
I see you there
Hiding on the footsteps of the alleyway
(We've got it, we've got it)

Don't even think you can run and hide
Don't even think you can say goodbye
(Still got it, still got it?)

Report, report
We've got a location
We got her tracked
We're gonna find her
Abort, abort
The mission's scratched
Someone else
Has gone and found her Kept her in
Deep inside
We coincide
As the long and departed
People that once were
Her friends and all
Now we are gone
Faithfully departed

We've got a runner (We've got a runner)
We're chasing her down
Chasing her down
We're Chasing our target (Chasing a high risk target) Oh, don't even try to run (I tried, tried, tried my hardest)
Don't, don't, baby
You're gonna leave me alone (Sleepless nights I am
honest)
Don't even say goodbye

You have your rights
Don't say a word
Don't say a word

You said we can run and hide
You said we'd never say goodbye
We've had our fun and games
We played, we lost

You still running from me?
You still trying to make believe?
You still trying to say
Say hello to your past
Say hello to your lies

You have your rights
Don't say goodbye
Don't say goodbye

Tell me you'd believe, because...

The time is running out

It's running thin
I see the stars
They're going down
They're going up
The sun is rising
I'm coming up
The city and time
We're gonna drown
Don't get me down this time
