(Bobby Fisher - Chris Blake)

Your name still touches off that spark of want to in me
Your touch still makes me feel like flyin' high
Your kiss still makes me hear that same sweet melody
And I can still get lost still get lost in your eyes.

You've still got it cause I feel it when I'm near you
It just seems you go on growing endlessly
You've still got it the key to love's ole mysteries
You've still got it and what you've got still gets to me.

After all this time you'd think our love would quiet down
But the flame keeps burning hotter than before
When I walk with you my feet they still don't touch the ground
And the two of us keep comin' back keep comin' back for more.

You've still got it cause I feel it when I'm near you
It just seems you go on growing endlessly
You've still got it the key to love's ole mysteries
You've still got it and what you've got still gets to me.

You've still got it and what you've got still gets to me...
