All That Really Matters
Sambora, Supa

When I look at you you're beautiful there comes a time in someone's life when you find things that matter

And every time we touch the love runs deep we realize it's our to keep and that's all that really matters

You'll always be my sweet addiction in this life my saving grace you're all that really matters you know it's true
ain't no me without you

When you're in the dark baby don't despair
I'm just a spark away
I will be there and that's all that matters

We'll share our lives together yes our flame burns on forever and at the final curtain call we can say we did it all

And when we turns to dust and we fly away there'll be a light stil burning bright
