Life is a road, forever winding where it leads us,
I don't know, in it together.
For better or worse, searching for our pot of gold.
Time, leaves a trail of broken hearts,
So many arrows just keep missing, their mark.
Baby that ain't us.
Nothing else matters, when you're in it for love,
Together we can only go higher.
You can reach any rainbow, you're dreaming of,
Nothing else matters at all, when you're in it for love
baby.
Yeah.
We'll share in the laughter, share in the tears,
And the promises we keep.
Life can be crazy, love can be cruel,
But it's always been a two way street.
You try, and give it all you have to give,
So many people don't know how to forgive.
Baby that ain't us.
Nothing else matters, when you're in it for love,
Together we can only go higher.
You can reach any rainbow, you're dreaming of,
Nothing else matters at all, when you're in it for love
baby.
You try, and give it all you have to give,
So many people don't know how to forgive.
Baby that ain't us.
Nothing else matters, when you're in it for love,
Together we can only go higher.
Reach any rainbow, you're dreaming of,
Nothing else matters at all, when you're in it for love
baby.
When you're in it for love baby,
In it for love.
When you're in it for love,
When you're in it for love,
When you're in it for love, In it for love.
