It's got the whole world shaking
Something must be going on
All right

It's got the whole world shaking
Something must be going on
What I say

It's got that soul in it, baby
You can't meet that beat alone
All right

It's got the whole world shaking
And I'm talking bout that beat
All right

It's got the whole world shaking
And I'm talking bout that beat
What I say

It's got that soul in it, baby
You can't help but pat your feet
All right

Well, it makes you wiggle
It makes you move
Puts your body in the groove

You want to holler
Oh, you want to shout
Makes you wanna work it on out

It's got the whole world shaking
From New York to old Hong Kong
All right

It's got the whole world shaking
From New York to old Hong Kong
Oh, what I say

It's got that soul in it, baby
You can't meet that beat alone
