Calling you by Machiavel
(Thierry Plas, Roland De Greef, Marc Ysaye, Herv  Borb , Mario Guccio)

I'm calling you, over & over
What about you?
I got no answer
Against the wall, rebounding right in my face,
My words are an echo, it's fading away

I feel you don't know about me
I hear it from the voice inside
I know you don't feel much about me
I got more pain to hide
And I'm calling, I'm calling you over again,
Just calling, calling you over again

I'm seeking you, over & over
But where are you?
Far from the pain
Against the wall, rebounding right in your face
My love is an echo, and is fading away

And I'm calling, I'm calling you over again,
Just calling, calling you over again

And I'm calling, I'm calling you over again,
Just calling, calling you over again

I feel you don't care about me
I hear it from the voice inside
I know you don't think about me
I got more pain to hide

And I'm calling, I'm calling you over again,
Just calling, calling you over again
