it's a dream again by Machiavel (Thierry Plas, Roland De Greef, Marc Ysaye, Herv   Borb  , Mario Guccio)

In a silent garden
Yellow clouds hide a virtual sun
A digital wind thins out the leaves of silicone trees
Sitting in a velvet grass Garden dwarfs feed plexiglass cows watching wooden trains

It's a dream again
It's a dream again
It's a dream
A mirage of a life

In a techno heaven
God is surfing on his new computer
And Mary is crying, While soldiers play with tin children
There's a light in their eyes,
A glow warming the angels souls
Feeding my illusions

It's a dream again
It's a dream again
It's a dream
A mirage of a life
