I'll never forget what you did before
You've put me down on my knees
I don't believe in you anymore

I've spent my time so wrong a way now your image fades away

You don't trust me, I forgot your name!
I've put you out of my head
You're on your own, I'm on my way
I just need to get away

I do believe in myself more and more
Out of you I want to live
I don't believe in you anymore
You can run around town on your knees

you're gonna lose it ,now I leave the game

You will be out of the screen
We don't believe each other anymore

We spent our time so wrong a way now our image fades away

I do believe in myself more and more
Out of you I want to live
I don't believe in you anymore
You can run around town on your knees

I can believe in myself more and more
Out of you I want to live
I don't believe in you anymore
You can run around town on your knees
Running round and round
