when johan died sirens were singing by Machiavel

Music : Albert Letecheur

Words : Marc Ysaye

I knew I was ready, ready to die Nathaly was gone for always ever

I knew I was ready, ready to die I' d never seen her back again

Oh someone tell me what 's happend to me, Gods, I hear sirens in my head

Oh girl, you'll never know how much how much I love you love you love you so

I can hear beyond the grave

Johan's voice calling Nathaly

I remember, all their happy days

I wonder why they couldn't be together now

And I see up'on the sky

A little star shining differantly

Surely the star off Johan and Nathaly they must be together now

Could be an other end to the tragic Johan's story ?
