MUSIC & LYRICS

She wakes up before the morning light,
Thinking everyday is like a brand new life,
she knows how to use it!

Wild as the wind
Nobody knows it
Which way she comes
Which way she goes, she's free! she's free!

Anytime she gives all she has
With a smile upon her face, she knows how to do it
When she talks about little things
I realize how much I've missed
I can't believe it

Wild as the wind
Nobody knows it
Which way she comes
Which way she goes, she's free! she's free!

Wild as the wind
Nobody knows it
Which way she comes
Which way she goes, she's free! she's free!
she's free!
