"Everything Is Wrong"

Visit "Everything Is Wrong" on MotoLyrics.com

Like a nancy boy in a crowded biker bar
Or killing your own dog backing up the car
Like a dying priest realising there's no god
Getting paralysed on a surftrip in Cape Cod

All things good have gone
Everything is wrong
You thought you were so strong
But now everything is wrong

Like a mountaineer realising he's lost his way

Or a sudden bank of fog on a fast freeway
Like a lonely hiker cracking through the ice
Or the insight that excuses won't suffice

All things good have gone
Everything is wrong
You thought you were so strong
But now everything is wrong
