I cant kick this is feeling, im out of control im loosing my mind and i, never felt so low

Do you remember when we had it all do you see yourself inside,the image on your wall

Chorous:

ive gotta break out, what do you wanna see
i wanna go back, just set your mind free the vision in my head, it takes me back where it used to be

Shine on forver,the picture is so clear
ive had the greatest moment, and the flashlight
captures emotion
Shine on forever,when the colour fades to grey Ive had the sweetest memories, in my photo frame

Im crashing and burning,someone throw me a line what i had before is what i, looking to find

If your loosing your rhythm,put yourself in rewind go back to a place where you,are on a natural high

Chorous:

Ive gotta break out, what do you wanna see
i wanna go back, just set your mind free
the vision in my head, it takes me back where it used to

Shine on forver,the picture is so clear
Ive had the greatest moment, and the flashlight
captures emotion
Shine on forever,when the colour fades to grey
Ive had the sweetest memories

Shine on forver,the picture is so clear
ive had the greatest moment, and the flashlight
captures emotion

Shine on forever, when the colour fades to grey
