

Same Same "Stay"

Open up your heart
Open up your mind
Do what you thinks right
So we don't have to fight
We play a different game
Though the two of us are the same
In the time you were here
The only thing I'd fear is

Time will only tell a story
Of two people living through the glory

When love might tear us apart
But we can't back down
We knew this from the start
And I miss you now
I don't want this to end up that way
I just want you here one more day

Stay

When the feelings gone
There's more for us to work on
But how do we begin
If you won't let me in
Until the bitter end
You and I are friends
And I will stand beside you
here's nothing I won't do
