Take my hand and I will pull you through
The light is gone but I am still here with you
You are so far away thinkin' you should roam
My arms are ready for you to come back home

And can you feel me, feel my reach?
Oh honey take it easy, honey, just be

When we were young in love our world was so small
And now we're grown, we're giants standing tall
In being who you are there is no shame
Through the eyes of compromise it never looks the same

And can you feel me, feel my reach?
Oh honey, take it easy, honey, just be

And can you feel me, feel my reach?
Oh honey, don't conceal me, honey, just be

No, I could not forgive myself thinkin' I held you back
Go ramblin' like a freight train and get yourself on track
In being who you are there is no shame
And through the eyes of compromise it never looks the same

And can you feel me, feel my reach?
Oh honey take it easy, honey, just be
And can you feel me, feel my reach?
Oh honey, don't conceal me, honey, just be
