Flashing memories burning into minds psychotic iam echoes of morbid thoughts it speaks to me Loud and clear i can now see it in front of me medically destroyed
Depressive and sick not of this world any longer self Destroyed suicidal and mental weakness, frustration, anger and pain Please free my soul listen ,do what you have to Free your mind, do it! i wait for you on the other side, you and me, for eternal time Empty eyes are gazing through the glass of pills frustration as shadow of it Condemned to be , a slave of this game
What sustains my existence?
The broken dream's everything is gone
Take the step, one foot in front of the other Now! listen! trust and follow into game
Everything is clear now
Can't they see it?
It's easy, come on do it!
Are they here?
Try to scream!
Can you hear it?
Just open the door
Your death is here!!!!
