An infallible prodigy standing in veneration a psychotic supreme as minion righteousness Wander the grand damnation long awaited pearly gates carry the burden of sinful covet glorify The servant of deception experiencing the power of testosterone as nuanced through obituary of The damned ravenous for salvation betrayed by desire Wanting to feel the scape from freedom End postponed despair is synthesized becoming death, as eyes are closed destroyer of the Constellations fragrant stench from wounds of lust euphonic screams of benediction prosper The egoistic a chorus of redemption a traceable act of insanity staring in eyes of panic Smell the odour of consternation indifference having the upper hand nourishing the Pandemonium the psychotic escape death tale of the
