Heart of mine (Heart of mine), milk and honey (Milk and honey)
It ain't the money (It ain't the money), no we know (Now we know)
Doin' lines (Doin' lines), ain't it funny (Ain't it funny)
That it ain't the money (It ain't the money), now we know (Now we know)
After the money they lust, sell their souls for the unlimited cash flow
In god we trust but that's never in class though
Enron, WorldCom, CEO assholes
A monopoly to collect whenever they "Pass go"
Big screen TV's, nigga please
There will be no alerts before they search the siege 13 hrs in the seal with 13 leaves 13 steps that it takes to see 13 thieves
Hidee high (Hidee high), lowdy low (Lowdy low), get up and go (Get up and go) to the show (To the show)
Every time (Every time), I get low (I get low) I get up and go (I get up and go) to the show (To the show)
I fell in love with her once, she was evil I remember
Her 18th birthday, she became legal tender
Some say she was heaven sent with skeletons in her closet
Traded herself for drugs and stayed inside of my wallet
I know women who couldn't have her who became alcoholics
In the foetal position bent over toilets and calling for earl with pains in their bladders
So people listen when I tell you it really don't matter
Betcha giving head to a movie star (?)
Betcha gotta llama riding in your car (?)
Betcha u gotta TV built in your jet skis (Yeah jet skis)
Betcha giving head to a movie star
Betcha gotta llama riding in your car
Betcha u gotta TV built in your jet skis (Tell me mama)
Hidee high (Hidee high), lowdy low (Lowdy low), get up and go (Get up and go) to the show (To the show)
Ain't it funny how the money makes the honey taste like nothing you can't have no more?

Now we know (Now we know that it don't mean nothin') Ain't it funny how the money makes (How the money makes) the honey taste like nothing
(The honey taste just like nothing) you can't have no more? (People act like they have what they wanted)
Now we know (Now we know that it don't mean nothin')

Peace of mind (Peace of mind), fill my tummy (Fill my tummy) it ain't the money (It ain't the money)
Now we know (Now we know that it don't mean nothin') Hard to find (Ain't it funny how) got my something and it ain't the money (People act like they have what they wanted)
Now we know (Now we know that it don't mean nothin')
Hidee high (Betcha giving head to a movie star), lowdy
low (Betcha gotta llama riding in your car)
Get up and go (Betcha u gotta TV built in your jet skis)
to the show Ain't it funny how the money (Betcha giving head to a movie star)
Makes the honey taste like nothing (Betcha gotta llama riding in your car)
You can't have no more? (Betcha u gotta TV built in your jet skis)
Now we know (I'm in the kitchen, cooking up food)
Now we know (Now we know that it don't mean nothin') Ain't it funny how (Ain't it funny how) the money makes the honey taste like nothing you can't have no more?
(People act like they have but they're bluffing) (Now we know that it don't mean nothin')
They're own match, let them Macy
(Now we know that it don't mean nothin')
