With burning eyes a glance to darkness the countour beast is rising consolation in the Figureine of discipline caught between thoughtlessness and reason wanting to fell life flow Decreasing executing orders given by deathlike conjurers analysing the means and dimensions Expirmenting with demise a passage through the distorted mirror
Seeking the the consent of balance discipline of mind and matter the spine of childhood is Crumbling a momentary loss of insight scolding the brath of punishment modular componenet of Pandemonium carving with black at refrence zero being the grey of darkness a shadow of Redundancy a spiteful disciple blood flow
The measurment of disciple with burning eyes a glance to darkness the contour of beast Is rising consolation in the figurine of discipline caught between thoughtlessnes and Reason wanting to fell life flow decreasing
