Just because you don't
Just because you don't
Doesn't mean I don't
Doesn't mean I don't

Just because you do
Just because you do
Doesn't mean I want you too
Doesn't mean I want

Treat him like shit and you're what I want
Treat him like shit and you're what I want

You're everybody's girl
And everybody knows your name
You've finally got the chance
To play in your own way

Just because you don't
Doesn't mean that I don't
Just because you do
Doesn't mean I want you too

Just because you don't
Just because you don't
Just because you don't

Treat him like shit and you're what I want
Treat him like shit and you're what I want
Hook, hook, hook line and sinker

Just because you don't
Just because you don't

Treat him like shit and you're what I want
Treat him like shit and you're what I want
Hook, hook, hook
