Still want you with everything you've made me do
You almost taste like hate and I can't stay away
Self destruction, no pain, character reduction

Slow fade, lazy reflex, no feeling, hand to mouth, tightly bound
Remember when we met seemed so innocent
But I was different then, now I know how the story ends

I'm the one with the unreached goals
Never thought I could sink so low
I believed everything I was told

Save me from the undertow
Big on suckers bets placed my soul in debt
Looks like from where I'm at there's no coming back

I'm the one with the unreached goals
Never thought I could sink so low
I believed everything I was told

Save me from the undertow
Big on suckers bets placed my soul in debt
Looks like from where I'm at there's no coming back
