Cracking knuckles and tapping feet
Something isn't quite complete

Ignoring my company I'm hoping
They'll take the hint and leave

That magazine cover that caught my eye is so inviting
I think it's time

That magazine cover that caught my eye is so inviting
The bathroom floor is cold but the water is hot

It burns my skin as I get in
But I like that a lot

I like that a lot
I like that a lot
I like that a lot

Lay back and play
Lay back and play, yeah

I like that a lot
I like that a lot

Lay back and play
Lay back and play, yeah yeah

I like that a lot
I like that a lot
I like that a lot
