Just like the wind,
You carry me away every time...
You smile and I misplace my mind
I swear that I'm about to explode
And you don't know

I play it cool, but I'm dying inside
One touch from you makes me lose my mind...

I try, I try to keep my feet on the ground
But every time that you come around
Baby don'tchu know it's like falling up,
I'm falling up

It may seem,
Your words just leave me uninspired
But heaven knows that I'm a liar
Cuz I've never felt so alive
Lyin' next to you tonight

My heart is telling me that something's begun
Can't deny you're the one that I want...

I try, I try to keep my feet on the ground
But every time that you come around
Baby don'tchu know it's like falling up,
I'm falling up
And I try but every time your close I go higher
Boy you set this rocket on fire
Baby don'tchu know that I'm falling up,
I'm falling up

I've been reachin' out, but the words just don't come out 'cause
I've hidden my heart with a shield
But if you'd only
Come a little closer, look a little harder
Just see me once, and see the way that I feel...

I try, I try to keep my feet on the ground
But every time that you come around

Baby don'tchu know that I'm falling up,
And I try but no matter what I do
Whenever I'm with you
Baby don'tchu know that I'm falling up,
I'm falling up

And I'm fallin, fallin, fallin up X4
... Baby you know that I try
