

Mischief Brew

"Coffee, God and Cigarettes"

Visit "Coffee, God and Cigarettes" on MotoLyrics.com

I used to worship whiskey, now I only drink the lord
And I take my coffee, cream and seven sugars
Before we meet we stand out on the sidewalk as it pours
Swappin' one addiction for another

Coffee, God and cigarettes are all that I need
It's all that I need just to break this routine
Coffee, God and cigarettes are all that you need
It's all that you need just to be as free as me

When I run into my old friends still drinkin' from that cup
I never stay too long as I've been tempted
I say you know drink the devils brew, you know it's just a crutch
No longer must you live your life dependant

Coffee, God and cigarettes are all that I need
It's all that I need just to break this routine
Coffee, God and cigarettes are all that you need
It's all that you need just to be as free as me

Now what made me give, turn off the road that ends at the cliff
Took the car out for a spin, crashed the party, blood runs thin
Was it wakin up with fiftety stitches in my gourd
Was it dreamin' about bourban in the trama ward
Well I knew I was surely gonna end up dead
If I didn't embrace coffee, God and cigarettes

Coffee, God and cigarettes are all that I need
It's all that I need just to break this routine
Coffee, God and cigarettes are all that you need
It's all that you need just to be as free as me

Visit Mischief Brew page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.