English translation

The wind has taught me, the course of the future is in these handsJust get ready and go, you are ever freeTake in the boundaries, nothing, hatred, darkness, not understanding The difference between a vague yesterday and today, isn't it pleasant?Don't look back for anything, goodnight, keep hope, super-future
The wall is imposing but let's go past itIt's a desperate situation, so laugh at it

Kick around anything and everything
The wind has taught me, the course of the future is in these hands
In this confusion is found the answer of these changing
wings
Just get ready and go,
you are ever free
It's a lo-fi kind of feeling, hatred? Discomfort? Destruction. Depending on you Get on a lion's back and watch the world, aren't you unbeatable?
Still in progress,
the future can be changed, next time, goodbye, keep hope, a new world
The sky is amazing but let's go past it Lightning speed, better than anyone
With lightning speed, run past from behind Create a tomorrow where you can chase after unending dreams Even in sadness, these glittering wings can be changed
Just get ready and go, you are ever free It's a desperate
situation, so laugh at it
Kick around anything and everything
One day your future
self will turn over the page of that story
The everlasting radiance continues to the last page in your hands Create a tomorrow where you can chase after unending dreams
In this confusion is found the answer of these changing
wings
Just get ready and go, you are ever free
