VERSE 1

Sittin here staring at this photograph
Hate to crack a smile cuz it hurts to laugh
Can't believe that's it's over
Our love is so cold now
You were my first now there's no turning back
They say all good things come to an end
But we were 'pose to be the one that last til the end
My bed is so lonely
Call me mr. lonely
Not only did I lose my lover I lost a friend

CHORUS

Now what in the hell am I suppose to do?
When everything I hear and see reminds me of you
Guess I'll lay down on my bed and just lay
And just stay
Until this love fades away
Seasons they change
I'm hurting inside
It feels like it's been raining
40 days and 40 nights
Love fades away
Seasons they change
I'm hurting inside
It feels like it's been raining
40 days and 40 nights

VERSE 2

Lookin at my clock damn I can't sleep
Don't wanna see the kitchen cuz I can't eat
My stomachs upset babe
And I got a headache
Need medicine to heal my heart I'm so weak
Wanna call you up but you only ignore
But that's the only way that I can hear your voice
Hows the dog that I bought you?
I know it's things that I called you
Believe me when I say that I'm sorry for it

CHORUS

Now what in the hell am I suppose to do?

When everything I hear and see reminds me of you
Guess I'll lay down on my bed and just lay
And just stay
Until this love fades away
Seasons they change
I'm hurting inside
It feels like it's been raining
40 days and 40 nights
Love fades away
Seasons they change
I'm hurting inside
It feels like it's been raining
40 days and 40 nights

I gotta pick myself up it's so bad
I can't even function you are all I had
I'm incomplete without your love
Come back to me please my boo
I know I'm not the man that I used to be
I'm beggin you girl come back to me
I'm goin down oh baby please

Ohhh...
40 days and 40 nights
40 days and 40 nights

CHORUS

Now what in the hell am I suppose to do?
When everything I hear and see reminds me of you
Guess I'll lay down on my bed and just lay
And just stay
Until this love fades away
Seasons they change
I'm hurting inside
It feels like it's been raining
40 days and 40 nights
Love fades away
Seasons they change
I'm hurting inside
It feels like it's been raining
40 days and 40 nights
