Here you are again Another stupid party again A celebration for nothing

Your eyes are following
The kings and the queens of the zoo
Immune in their black clothing
They let the world down
And they let you go, they let you go

Please don't go home now Home is a place to rob Home is alone in the mob Home is an unheard sob

Jenny don't go Jenny don't go home now Please don't you go home now

Here you are again Another stupid party again Everyone here thinks that when they die You will be there to let them in

Jenny don't go Please don't go home now Please don't you go home now Jenny don't go home now
