Some go down on a borderline

Another one die in a neighborhood
Evil versus good
Someone cheers, a mother cries
So welcome to the world's arena
Where love, power, and war

Where blood, sweat, and tears

Gets an encore
And behind that one lies another one
And there's another one behind that one
And still growing up there's a youngest son

And he don't mind dying
And we sing . . .

Hallelujah

Hallelujah

Hallelujah
It's a glory, hollow hallelujah
Yeah, there's another one behind that one

And behind that one lies another one

And still growing up there's a youngest son

And he don't mind dying

And we sing . . .

Hallelujah

Hallelujah

Hallelujah

It's a glory, hollow hallelujah
Hollow hallelujah

Glory hallelujah
Hallelujah
Hallelujah
