Look in those eyes
Tell me what do you see
Do you see a sparkle or shimmer like me
I see something special within that little girl
Thats what I see through her eyes
Thats what I see through her eyes

I see the warmth
Of a loving family
I see people who care bout each other
But things aren't all that good
When you see her cry
Thats what I see through her eyes
Thats what I see through her eyes

Here in the night
We sit alone
Thinking what else
They could of done
Now its up to us
We can't stop what they have begun
And it just took me by suprise
Looking through her eyes

I see a mad man
Trying to kill this sweet girl
I see a woman
Trying to escape pain
But if this child has to live through this shit
Its a miracle
Its a miracle

Here in the night
We sit alone
Thinking what else
They could of done
Now its up to us
We can't stop what they have begun
And it just took me by suprise
Looking through her eyes (ooh)
And it just took me by suprise (suprise suprise)

Looking through... her eyes (yeah)
