The birds immigrate & come back; the sun goes away & come back .

The world (life) gives & takes , even if the night is long , It will be ended

We are dreaming for so many nights. we got tiered & we came back alone with our torture .

Try to change, by the time you can do it ..

Do not let go for sadness as long as you are alive.

The life sea is unfaithful .. , Life is still good

He is holding secrets , Life is still in front of us .

The days passes by & goes . Tomorrow will come for sure

Dreams are living & dying, A new dream will come .
