every mistake you heart did for me every pain every tears my heart ate

i will pay it back to you

i won't forget it

take your life take your memories take your love and give my my heart that you wronged with your love

continue your love journey with someone else with a heart is not my heart with another love me and you and the days and life is ahead of us we will see how is pain will live and how is pain will sleep

every pain every tears my heart ate

and give my my heart that you wronged with your love

my heart tears and the pain it's very precious mistake you will keep paying it all nights
every pain every tears my heart ate
and give my my heart that you worked with your love
