Hey baby you're a rock man
A powder man, a draw man
A driller
The harder I make it for you
The better you like it

Hey baby you're a draw man
A pipe man, a furnace
A filler
Let's make time escape
Let's excavate the surface

It's too much trouble to impress you
My lies are never big enough
I use the truth to cover up where you're looking

Hey baby you're a rock man
A powder man, a draw man
A driller
The harder I make it for you
The better you like it

Hey baby you're a draw man
A pipe man, a furnace
A filler
Let's make time escape
Let's excavate the surface

You love not knowing what I would do with you
You know exactly what to do

Hey baby
