[The Saturdays]

I was standing by the bar on a table
I could hardly breathe
Didn't fight you no I couldn't say no, cos you were onto me.

You don't know what it's like, I need you bad I feel alone
You don't know how it feels, just like a criminal

Turn myself in tonight, this is me coming clean with my hands up
Turn myself in tonight, cos I know that alone I'm in danger
Turn myself in truly, warned you bad, you should have me in handcuffs
Turn myself in tonight, this is me coming clean with my hands up.

You'll hear the sirens going, hoo-hoo-hoo, hoo-oo hoo-hoo-hoo
You'll hear the sirens going, hoo-hoo-hoo, hoo-oo hoo-hoo-hoo

No escape as our bodies move closer
I find it hard to leave
It's a tense little touch and it lingers
Like a crown that's put on me

You don't know what it's like, I need you bad I feel alone
You don't know how it feels, just like a criminal

Turn myself in tonight, this is me coming clean with my hands up
Turn myself in tonight, cos I know that alone I'm in danger
Turn myself in truly, warned you bad, you should have me in handcuffs
Turn myself in tonight, this is me coming clean with my hands up.

You'll hear the sirens going, hoo-hoo-hoo, hoo-oo hoo-hoo-hoo

You'll hear the sirens going, hoo-hoo-hoo, hoo-oo hoo-
hoo-hoo

Can hear the blue lights coming for me

Take me, take me

You could lock me up but I'll still be free

Turn myself in tonight, this is me coming clean with my hands up

Turn myself in tonight, cos I know that alone I'm in danger

Turn myself in truly, warned you bad, you should have me in handcuffs

Turn myself in tonight, this is me coming clean with my hands up.

You'll hear the sirens going, hoo-hoo-hoo, hoo-oo hoo-
hoo-hoo

You'll hear the sirens going
