Verse

I watch the rain from my window
I'm waiting for you to come home
I don't want you to my widow
Cause I don't want to see you alone

Chorus

I'm not falling, I'm just calling for you
To touch me, to hold me
And I'm not leaving, I'm just bleeding for you
To love me, to feel me
And it's not over
I will wait for you, forever
Just open your arms to me

Verse

I never wanted to go away
And I should have listened to you when you said stay
I wish I hadn't been to the places I've been
I wish I hadn't seen the things that I've seen

Chorus

I'm not falling, I'm just calling for you
To touch me, to hold me
And I'm not leaving, I'm just bleeding for you
To love me, to feel me
And it's not over
I will wait for you, forever
Just open your arms to me

Verse

Now you watch for me from your window
You're waiting for me to come home
But now you're my widow
And I've left you all alone
