Verse 1

I see it in your eyes your all full of lies, You innocence has past it will never last
And I won't turn my back, 'cause your gonna crack
You hit me in the face what a bitter taste, Your hates just a waste I will never break
And I will give you more, when you're lying on the floor

Verse 2

You kicked me when I'm down now I'm not around, too pick you off the ground and now your going down
And I will give you more, when you're lying on the floor
And I will give you more, when you're lying on the floor

Bridge

I will never break, I will never break
I will never break, I will never break

Verse 3

You threw it all away there's nothing more to say
Every dog has his day and now you'll fucken pay
And I will give you more, when you're lying on the floor
And I will give you more, when you're lying on the floor

Bridge

I will never break, I will never break
I will never break, I will never break
