"Santa Ana Winds"

Here in Southern California
There is a weather condition known as the
Santa Ana Winds

Fire wind
Oh, desert wind
She was born in a desert breeze

And wind her way
Through Canyon Way
From the desert to the silvery sea

In every direction
See the perfection
And see the San Gabriel Mountain scene

Santa Ana winds keep blowin' across my eyes
Santa Ana winds keep blowin' across my eyes

Fill my sails
Oh, desert wind
And hold the waves high for me

Then I will come
And test my skill
Where the Santa Ana winds blow free

In waves of elation
My part of creation
Becoming one with the boundless sea

Santa Ana winds blow gently across our eyes
Santa Ana winds blow gently across our eyes

I am the wind
Oh, desert wind
On my pilgrimage to the sea

I will prevail
I will not fail
To bring life into humanity

My song is creation
And rejuvenation
Whispering the wisdom and its purity

Santa Ana winds keep blowin' across my eyes
Santa Ana winds keep blowin' across my eyes

Santa Ana winds keep blowin' across my eyes
Santa Ana winds keep blowin' across my eyes
