I wish time was on our side
But your clock hands have got the best of me
I only hope that when I come back
You'll finally be ready for me

And I hope and I pray that you're sorry
And I hope that you know that I'm sorry
Cos I never thought I would be here
No I never thought I would be here

And I hope and I pray that you're sorry
And I hope that you know that I'm sorry
Well maybe this could be our year

So this is it, I'm coming home
I wonder if you spent this time alone
I'm the only one who cares
Well maybe I'm better on my own

And I hope and I pray that you're sorry
And I hope that you know that I'm sorry
Cos I never thought I would be here
No I never thought I would be here

And I hope and I pray that you're sorry
And I hope that you know that I'm sorry
I don't think this will be our year

I'm going to take the time to remind you
When you act like this, I despise you
I wrote this to let you know
I'm going to use this time to forget you
Cos I wish that I never met you
I wrote this to let you know
That I'm better off on my own

This was never my plan
But I hope that we could become friends
It wasn't you, it was me, I'll take the blame

Well you can go back to hell

Every word you say was a lie, I can tell
It wasn't me, it was you, so here's the blame
As a song in your name

I'm going to take the time to remind you
When you act like this, I despise you
I wrote this to let you know
I'm going to use this time to forget you
Cos I wish that I never met you
I wrote this to let you know
That I'm better off on my own

I wrote this to let you know
That I'm better off on my own
