"A Lie"

You and I live in our dream we knew the dream never come ture
Even it doesn't mean anything I don't want to keep doing like this.
It's so painful

I wish the time will be disappear,
I wish Morning won't come over ever again
Here, I'm not real I am, Here, You're not real you are

In memory, there is only You and I as you can see
Here, there is nothing between you and I

The promise will never keep, I knew the promise is a lie

But I wish it can be true someday
The promise is as evanescent as melting snow
Don't want to run a way I would be drowned in you
Even I don't understand your heart
I want to take it deep inside to me... deep inside me...

You and I lose hope again, the hope became a lie.
Throw My heart into despair I trying to feel your love.
But you are not here anymore

You are in memory but not my side any more.
In memory, you are with me, Now you are with somebody else here.

In memory there is only you and I, as you can see
Now you are with somebody else here.

The promise will never keep, I knew the promise is a lie

But I'll wait till it can be true someday
It is sad as much as shining snow
Your promise, it would take me live with rest of my life
My heart break all over again
I want to stay in memory of you but I can't reach you...
I can't reach you...

(What am I supposed to do without you.
.. I can't erase the time we spent together)

I want to love you forever!
