Chorus

Kulam medabrim al shalom af echad lo medaber al tzedek leeched zeh gan eden la'acher gehenom kamah etzba'ot al hahedek?
(x2)

Ad matai yahum hasa'ar?

Until when the storming rage, will rise upon us

it is difficult to translate this sentenceâ€¦|sorry

Until when a man will be a son of a dog? (-sorry, but that is the meaning of the sentence, word by word.)

Machlikot hapanim al hata'ar,

(sorry, but this what the sentence means: it means that the blaze, the blade of the knife is touching, is sliding, slipping on the face)

The Fingers are caressing the sword

Sometimes life are putting me down on my knees

There is no guard near the gate

There is no sign from the sky, from heaven above

I see people that are livening the dreams and the hope anashim shechaim rak tachachim umezimot.

(I see) people that are (only living, searching, looking) for (to do) intrigues, conspiracy, scams, plots)

There some people who ask questions (why), and there is no answer

And there are some (people) that only have complains, and demands aval...

Kulam medabrim al shalom

Chorus

Az nish'arim levad, medabrim el hakim,

ein im mi ledaber,

im rak navin shekulanu echad,

(it means: If we only understand, realize, that we all as one, united as one)

We will see how everything will be o.k, (it means, that everything will be in order, in our charge as one, and everything will get back together, everything will connected,) when your assets (your property, your possessions), will be burned, your soul will be burned

If you will not hurry to save your self (your soul) we murdered the land and we murdered our soul Almost nothing left (to us), (no) air to breath

Pay attention to my marks, I tried to be understandable:**
oseh sivuv vechozer le'otah nekudah

And this is the translation of every sentence word by word:
and the word is in a constant move makes a circuit and returns to the same point, to the same place mah she'oleh,

chayav laredet
ech lok'chim et hakol bemidah?
Yesh anashim shelok'chim ba'alut al Elohim (it means that, that there are some people who think they are godâ€¦)
And there are some people, who fight back, and (there are some who) kick and scratch back
How many of us really do listen?
Everyone is talking about peace

Chorus

Lechulam yesh oto hachalom al pnei har,
al pnei emek,
mamshichim ledaber, medabrim al shalom aval lo yichun shalom bli tzedek.
