The pain is deep
I'm fading like belated flower
Darling, I hear you weep
I'm almost through
I'm melting like fatigued candle
Honey, you feel it too

My last sunset
Takes me away
Heave silence
Recedes when I pray
Forgive my tears

Thousand nights behind
Unclouded love
Was so chaste and quiet
Thousand miles behind
There was no doubt
No shade of cry
I'm forever yours

The promises are burned to ashes
No more oath that we need
I feel your grief
We thought that life would last for ages
Time is thief, ruthless thief

My last sunset
Takes me away
Heave silence
Recedes when I pray

Forgive my tears

Thousand nights behind
Unclouded love
Was so chaste and quiet
Thousand miles behind
There was no doubt
No shade of cry
I'm forever yours

Thousand tears behind
We had a hope
We had a dream
About us
Thousand words behind
The bitter truth
Was unsaid
And I'm forever yours:

Even when I close my eyes
Forever yours
I'll be forever yours

My whole life will never die
Forever yours
I'll be forever yours

Time goes by
You're still mine
Forever yours
Don't cry
You're still mine
Forever yours
I'm forever yours:
