"New Blood"

Once I felt connected
Don't know what went wrong
Sure there's a reason for
Feeling so restless
Should be aware
Guess I no longer care

Always need new blood, taking me over
Never quite enough, though you
Reach out for
reach out for my hand tonight
Always new blood

Two-faced perception, sacred or profane
Pathway to different worlds
Always the question
Could be aware
Guess I no longer care

Always need new blood, taking me over
Never quite enough, though you
Reach out for
reach out for my hand tonight
Always new blood

I see you
From the shadows
I see you
Here from my kingdom of shadows

Always need new blood, taking me over
Never quite enough, though you
Reach out for
reach out for my hand tonight
Always new blood
